January 2009

Once again, the City will showcase some of South Florida's top musical acts when the Sunrise at Sunset concert series begins this month.

Now in its 10th season, this free outdoor concert series will be held on the second Friday of each month from January through May 2009. All concerts will be performed outside at the Sunrise Civic Center Amphitheatre, located at 10610 West Oakland Park Boulevard. Attendees are encouraged to bring a lawn chair or blanket.

"We're committed to providing diverse cultural programming across a variety of musical genres to appeal to all segments of our population," said Mayor Roger Wishner.

January

The series kicks off on January 9 with the smooth stylings of Final Countdown. Fronted by lead singer Micheal Whitehead, this group regularly headlines at such South Florida hotspots as Blue Martini in Fort Lauderdale and Mansion in Miami Beach.

February

On February 13, the Fabulous Fleetwoods bring their unique blend of hard-charged covers and original blues to the Civic Center Amphitheatre for the second show of the series.

March

Party in paradise with Jimmy Stowe & the Stowaways on March 13 as they sail into Sunrise with an entertaining mix of cool, Floribbean-style tunes and a captivating stage show. With lead singer Jimmy Stowe at the helm, this fun-filled party band performs all the "Songs You Know By Heart."

April

Described as "a vocal cross between Anita Baker and Aretha Franklin," Valerie Tyson brings her smooth, sultry vocals to the Civic Center Amphitheatre on April 10. Valerie and her band have developed a unique fusion of R&B, pop, jazz, rock, swing, funk and soul that has been featured at every major South Florida cultural event - including Sunfest and the Coconut Grove Arts Festival.

May

After 23 years of entertaining South Florida, The Fabulons continue to be one of the area's favorite dance bands. Fans can always count on The Fabulons to perform a wide variety of music, including Motown, Doo-Wop, classic rock, disco, R&B, Beach Boys and Beatles hits. The Fabulons will close out the series on May 8.

For more information, call (954) 747-4600 or visit www.sunrisefl.gov.

Concert queen Valerie Tyson performs on April 10.

The Fabulons will rock the house on May 8.
