A motion to approve the minutes from the November 7, 2019 meeting was made by Delores Duncan and seconded by Charmaine Donald. The motion carried without opposition.

IV. Old Business

Cultural Festival Wrap-Up- Leisure staff estimated that there were about 500 more attendees at this year's festival. The board members were very happy with the bands on the main stage. They felt that the dancers were very entertaining but that not many people were able to see them because of the placement of the smaller stage. Staff stated that the kids' area in the rotunda was busy all night. The Lyrical Lounge always brings out a good crowd of teens.

Board members commented that even though the festival was fun for all, the event was a little too spread out over the Civic Center campus and hopes are that the City Park renovation will be completed for next year's festival.

V. New Business

Eastside Redevelopment- The old post office building on N.W. 68th Avenue is being removed as part of the plan to build an art park. The project is currently in the design phase.

- Sunrise Arts & Crafts Festival/Winter Wonderland- Saturday, December 7, 10:00am – 4:00pm at S.A.C. $5.00 entry fee to Winter Wonderland per participant.
